To Whom it may Concern

We express our gratitude to the customs broker GLS LLC for longstanding and effective cooperation in the sphere of customs clearance of our goods. Our company is completely satisfied with the high standard of service, diligence of managers, the ability to cooperate competently with the state service authorities.

It is worth emphasizing that the company's employees do exhibit exquisite proficiency in solving operational issues, they are always attentive to business details and deeply interested in projects. It was a welcome surprise to our company that "GLS" LLC offered such high standards of customer service.

We have good reason to recommend this customs agent as the reliable and honest partner.
